GOVERNOR CONSIDERING NAMES.

HE TALKS HERE WITH MILITARY MEN ABOUT A SUCCESSOR TO ADJUTANT GENERAL ANDREWS.

question who will succeed General Avery D. Andrews as Adjutant General of the State is sausing much speculation and gossip in National guard circles, and candidates have come to the surface in swarms. A report which came from Albany on the day after General Andrews's resignation was accepted, that Governor Roosevelt had decided to appoint Captain Landon, of the 7th Regiment, while it gave satisfaction to the officers of that regiment, who know the captain as a painstaking and industrious officer, aroused some sition on the part of other officers, who argued place should go to one who had seen service in the Spanish war. The names of several men have been presented to the Governor since then, the most recent addition to the list being that of Major Putnam Bradlee Strong, now a of General George Moore Smith's staff Strong is highly recommended by General under whom he enlisted as a private in Regiment when General Smith was at its Later he was elected captain in that regimed when the Fifth Brigade was created onel Smith was chosen as its commanding Captain Strong accepted a place on his high he occupied when the war with Spain questions which have been disturbing the baseball world for some time are of the opinion that the uncertainties regarding the proposed reduction of the circuit from twelve to eight clubs will remain until after New Year's. The owners of the Brooklyn and Baltimore clubs appear to have recovered their good nature over the contemptible manner in which champions were treated at the recent League meeting, and intimate that if the other club owners will treat with them in a businesslike spirit, they are ready to talk business regarding the sale

Wagner, the owner of the Washington club, in Wagner, the owner of the Washington club, intimates that his property is not for sale, and reiterates that if the circuit is reduced the Senators will be found to be one of the eight remaining clubs. John M. Ward, who acted as the attorney of the Brooklyn club in the Wrigley controversy, suys that in his opinion the Brooklyn club will not make an issue at present of the 800 fine. He does not anticipate that this fine, unjust as it was, will be allowed to stand in the way of the possible reduction of the circuit. Ward says that this fine does not have to be paid until next April, and that that will be time enough to refuse to pay. The owners of the Brooklyn and Baltimore clubs have heard nothing from members of the Circuit Committee officially as to the proposed sale of the Bal-mittee officially as to the proposed sale of the Bal-timore franchise.

John T. Brush, the chairman of the Circuit Com-mittee, is still in the city, apparently content to allow the baseball troubles to cool off before taking any decisive action. It is expected that he will call the other members of the committee together short-ly after the first of the year and arrange for a con-ference with Messrs, Abel, Vonderhorst, Ebbets and Haulon.

BRUSHES ON THE SPEEDWAY-M DOWELL TO BE AT PARKVILLE FARM NEXT SEASON.

Thomas Daly put in an appearance yesterday behind his new horse Topaz (2:16%), a fast black trot-ter from Kansas. After having led the way from the bend to the bridge in several brushes Daly turned Topaz in company with E. O. Binzen's dap-pled gray mare Elmira, by Wilkes Boy, out of the dam of Anna Mace (2:29%). The Kansas horse trotted fast in the slippery footing, but the gray mare quickly drew to the front and held the lead to the bridge, winning a rattling brush. Until she ran W., by Alcander, Elmira was unbeaten yesterday ahead and won by two or three lengths at the end mira has any public record, they are among the

J. Blackburn Miller drove a new road horse of rare speed in the brown pacer Mark Hanna, winning two or three creditable brushes. Daniel Moran held the reins over a new trotting team that displayed 2:20 speed as they stepped down the road with E. D. Ruggles's bay mares, Maggle Wood, and Molly R., close after them. Another newcomer on dway was the bay pacing mare Nettle C the Speedway was the bay pacing mare Nettle C. (2.23-2).

The well known reinsman Andrew McDowell, in company with Frank Walker, the man who starts the horses at most of the Grand Circuit meetings each year, drove the California trotting mare Dolly Marchutz (2.19-3), by Charies Derby (2.30). McDowell started her up in a brush with the brown pacer Dan Patchen (2.19-4), but with the two men in the wagon she found herself unable to keep pace with the 2.19 flyer.

Present indications point to lively times at Parkville Farm next season. Closely following his engagement of the well known Western coit trainer.

A. L. Thomas, to handle the young trotters by Stranger and Axworthy, John H. Shuits has just employed "Andy" McDowell to drive the Parkville Farm campaigners on the circuit in 1909. McDowell is the man who drove Alix when she set the world's record for trotters at 2.265, He also drove Azote to his record of 2.944, and gave Directly his two-year-old pacing record of 2.673, which still stands unequalled. Among the other fast once McDowell has marked are Altao (2.663).

TO ENCOURAGE BASKET BALL.

The Registration Committee of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union are taking hold of the game of basket ball and are going to encourage it in this district in every possible yesterday that at the next meeting of the associa tion, they are going to advocate that the Metropol-Association give basket ball championships, both senior and junior, open to all registered ath-letes in the metropolitan district. Besides these two championships the National Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union, soon after the prop Metropolitan Association championships are finished, will give a National championship meeting, ished, will give a National championship meeting, which will be open to all registered basket ball teams in the United States. The teams that are now playing in this district without sanction and registration will be disqualified within the next few days. It has been noticed of late that several basket ball players have been mass-uerading under assumed names and being transferred from one club to another. This is contrary to the rules of the Amsteur Athletic Union, and all men who change from one club to another without the consent of the committee will be disqualified.
